NOTICE

The IRS has strict rulings regarding tax deductible donations. IRS rulings state that in order for a donation to be tax deductible it must be issued to a registered not-for-profit organization and cannot be issued on behalf of a particular individual. Therefore, in order for us to comply with these regulations, we cannot issue a tax deductible receipt if the participant's name is written ANYWHERE on the contribution slip or the check, including the memo line (that includes initials and first names) nor can the name be marked out in any form. Donations received and receipted become the property of Forest Hills Baptist Church.
